

WK DICKSON COMMUNITY Heroes

John Spencer

John Spencer, survey party chief in Wilmington, is a Christian volunteer for the Kairos Prison Ministry. The importance of John's influence to these individuals cannot be overstated. During talks that he gives throughout the year, John shares his personal testimony themed around choices one makes and the discomfort of stepping outside of your comfort zone.

The Kairos program currently operates in 350 prisons in 31 states in the U.S. and eight additional countries. More than 170,000 incarcerated men and women have been introduced to Kairos, since its inception and the number of volunteers exceeds 20,000 per year.

Earlier this year, John also spent a week in the tornado ravaged area of Joplin, Missouri on a mission trip. John states, "The 12 of us who went helped to pick up debris, patch roofs and most importantly spiritually connect with these families during their suffering."

Thank you John for your dedication to serving others; your commitment in the community makes you a true hero.
